Free Educational Program: Discover The Secrets of Understanding Men, Money and Marriage

Mediation & Collaborative Action Group is an alliance of professionals who have joined together with a common goal to lessen the financial and emotional burdens that come with disputes. Because of their commitment, they are offering a series of free seminars to the public.

Mediation & Collaborative Action Group and Mina Higgins Group are offering a free seminar, on September 20, 2010, "Discover The Secrets For Understanding: Men, Money, Marriage"

Transform relationships as you: Improve your Relationship with the Opposite Sex, Learn How Men and Women Communicate Differently About Money and Effectively Manage Your Money; Marriage is not All Wine and Roses. "An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure". This old adage applies to many things, including building a strong relationship. By spending time now, you can learn how to develop better communication skills. Every relationship, such as marriage, has some form of communication: discussing the logistics of daily life, talking about the children, planning for future events, even arguing is a form of communication. Just because you are talking doesn't mean you are effectively communicating. To truly value the art of communication, it is necessary to understand the different components of exchanges between individuals.

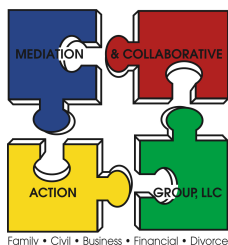

This free seminar will be held Monday, September 20, 2010 at 6:00 pm -7:30 pm at 555 Broadhollow Road, Suite 404, Melville, NY 11747.

Speakers: Amy Ramson, Life Coach
Rita Medaglio-Barrera, Certified Divorce Financial Analyst and Financial Planner
Gloria Ciolli, Family & Conflict Specialist
